

Cinderella told the fairy godmother about the prince's ball and how much she really wanted to go.

"Then you shall go to the ball and I will help you", said the godmother.

"Now, go and fetch me the largest pumpkin you have"

Cinderella came back with an enormous pumpkin which the fairy godmother touched with her magic wand. Instantly it changed into the most beautiful coach. Cinderella gasped with surprise.

"Now, go and fetch me a mousetrap."

Cinderella came back with the mousetrap and six little white mice inside, which the fairy godmother touched with her magic wand. Instantly they changed into six beautiful horses. Cinderella gasped with surprise.
