

PLACES

Funchal

Funchal, situated in the south of the island, is the capital of Madeira. The city is full of typical shops where you can buy souvenirs and local food and wine.

In the Flower Market you can buy a lot of plants and flowers from the island. If you want to see a representation of the flower of the island, you have to visit the Botanical Garden, on the top of the city.

Monte

Monte is a small city near of Funchal. It's on the top of a mountain, and you can watch spectacular views of the capital. To return to Funchal you can take a cart pushed by two persons.

Santana

Santana is a city in the north coast of Madeira. It's famous for its typical houses.

Near this city there is a village called Faial where you can swim in a marine pool.

Cabo Girao

In the north coast you can visit Cabo Girao, the second highest cliff in the world with 650 meters.

